Interpretation Act 2015

LICENSING FEES AND DUTIES ORDER 2020

Laid before Tynwald:

Coming into Operation:

1 May 2020

The Treasury makes the following Order under section 81 of the Interpretation Act 2015.

1 Title

This Order is the Licensing Fees and Duties Order 2020.

2 Commencement

This Order comes into operation on 1 May 2020.

3 Interpretation

In this Order –

“the Act” means the Licensing Act 1995¹;

“residential condition” means a condition that liquor may not be sold or supplied by retail except to persons residing on the premises;

“restaurant condition” means a condition that liquor may not be sold or supplied by retail to, or consumed by, persons other than persons taking a meal on the premises;

“triennium” means a period of three years ending on March 31st in a year which a triennial session of the licensing court is held.

4 Application Fees

The fee for applications and other matters in connection with the Act is given by the table below. These non-refundable fees are in addition to any duty payable under article 5.

Class of application	£
Any application under the Act*	35.80
Duplicate/Production of a licence	71.50

*In relation to the above fees, where any application affects more than one licence, such as in relation to a transfer of a designated official from one premises to another, the application fee shall be payable for each licence which is to be amended (e.g. in that scenario the application will attract twice the application fee).

Where an application requires the production of a licence due to an amendment or change in its content both the fee for the application and a separate fee in respect of the production of each licence affected will be payable (together with any sums payable under Article 5 below).

5 Duties payable for Licences etc.

(1) Subject to paragraphs (2) and (3), the following non-refundable duties are payable* on the application for a licence or the making of an order under the Act (in addition to the fees specified in Article 4 above for the making of an application and the production of a licence (where appropriate)):

*The duty sum payable will be the sum(s) applicable by order at the date of due consideration by the licensing authority.

Licence or Order	£
On-licence (other than one subject to a residential or a restaurant condition) or off-licence, where:
(a) there is no rateable value or the rateable value of licensed premises does not exceed £500	918.00
(b) the rateable value of licensed premises exceeds £500 but does not exceed £1500	1,897.50
(c) the rateable value of licensed premises exceeds £1500	2,703.00
On-licence subject to a residential or a restaurant condition, where:
(a) there is no rateable value or the rateable value of licensed premises does not exceed £500	459.00
(b) the rateable value of licensed premises exceeds £500 but does not exceed £1500	954.00
(c) the rateable value of licensed premises exceeds £1500	1,336.50
Occasional licence:
for the first day or part of a day	71.50
for each succeeding day or part of a day	20.40

Order under Section 53 of the Act (sale of liquor at a private function at a club) for each day:
for the first two hours or part of that period	25.60
for each succeeding hour or part of an hour	20.40
Registration Order	66.50

- (2) Except for occasional licences or those issued under section 53 of the Act, the duty payable under paragraph (1) shall be reduced by the proportion specified in column (2) in the following table where the licence is granted or the Order made in the period specified in column 1:

Period Reduction
(1)	(2)
After September 30 th and on or before March 31 st in the first year of a triennium	1/6
After March 31 st and on or before September 30 th in the second year of a triennium	1/3
After September 30 th and on or before March 31 st in the second year of a triennium	1/2
After March 31 st and on or before September 30 th in the third year of a triennium	2/3
After September 30 th and on or before March 31 st in the third year of a triennium	5/6

- (3) The duty payable on an application for a licence under section 11 of the Act (provisional licence) shall be calculated:
- (a) for premises being or to be constructed, as if the rateable value of the premises is null or did not exceed £500; and
- (b) for premises being or to be altered, on the rateable value of the premises at the time of the application;
- and the duty shall be re-calculated when the rateable value has been assessed or re-assessed, as the case may be, and the balance (if any) shall be payable immediately.

6 Transitional provision

Articles 4 and 5 in this order do not apply to an application made and received by the licensing authority before this Order comes into operation.

7 Revocation

The Licensing Fees and Duties Order 2017² is revoked.
